Amity Township Contractor's Licenses are required for all construction of new homes and for construction, repairs, alterations or renovations of any commercial structure or sign. There is a $75 fee for the Contractor's License, which will be due upon issuance. The license will be valid for one year from date of issuance. An Amity Township Contractor's License is not required for any residential home improvements. Licensing for such work is enforced through the Pa Attorney General's Office per the Pa Home Improvement Consumer Protection Act. Obtaining an Amity Township Contractor's License does not in any way relieve you of the responsibilities of the Act.
